Planning a bedroom that suits you

Your bedroom style

Like no other room in the house, your bedroom should be a place that helps you relax. So think about the style of room you find most inviting. Darker woods and robust shapes make for a warm and cosy retreat, while clean design and straight lines give a modern, sophisticated feel. For a bright, fresh effect, think about furnishing in lighter colours.

The right bed for you

Once you've decided on the general look of your bedroom, think about the bed and bedside tables that suit your particular needs. Do you like to read in bed? If so, we have bedside tables perfect for holding books and headboards with shelving. Do you dream of a really romantic escape? A four-poster bed might be the right choice.

Beyond the bed

A bedroom isn't only for sleeping. It's also where we get dressed and ready for the day. Add storage to suit your particular clothing needs, whether it's a chest of drawers or a floor-to-ceiling wardrobe. And if your routine includes a lot of styling time, you'll find mirrors that coordinate with all our bedroom collections. There are even special dressing tables that organise your make-up, jewellery, scarves and more. Measuring your bedroom before you buy can help you decide what bedroom set-up is best for you.

Make your dream bedroom complete

Pick up your copy of the new IKEA Comfort brochure at the IKEA store. It has everything you need to start sleeping better tonight.

The new IKEA Wardrobe brochure is waiting for you at the IKEA store. Inside you'll find all you need to help you pick and plan the perfect wardrobe.
